

Austrian power distribution box supplier

Article Overview

Austria hosts several reputable manufacturers of power distribution boxes, including Steinbacher Energie, PCE Group, MEHLER Elektrotechnik, and Energie- und Telecom Netze GmbH.

Key Manufacturers

Steinbacher Energie is one of Austria's oldest producers of meter boxes and distribution cabinets, offering a wide range of products for energy and civil engineering projects. They emphasize sustainability and provide both standard and custom solutions for electrical distribution . PCE Group (PC Electric) specializes in industrial plugs, sockets, and a complete range of rubber, metal, and plastic distribution boxes suitable for various industrial applications . MEHLER Elektrotechnik Ges.m.b.H. focuses on high and low voltage switch cabinets, including custom meter cabinets and control cabinets. They provide fully wired and tested switchgear systems, ensuring compliance with current regulations and tailored solutions for specific customer needs . Energie- und Telecom Netze GmbH (ETN) offers outdoor distribution cabinets and columns with protection ratings up to IP54. Their products can be supplied empty, partially equipped, or fully assembled, and they support customer-specific configurations including busbar systems and load-break switch strips .
