

Botswana Lighting Standard Distribution Box Manufacturer

Article Overview

Electrical Distributors in Botswana is a key supplier of lighting standard distribution boxes, with BPC-approved products and ready stock available across multiple branches.

Local Supplier: Electrical Distributors

Electrical Distributors, based in Gaborone, Botswana, has been supplying electrical hardware and lighting since 1983. They provide a wide range of products suitable for both domestic and industrial applications, including BPC-approved M1 meter boxes and other distribution boxes designed for durability and compliance with local standards. Their products are used by major parastatals such as Botswana Power Corporation (BPC), Water Utilities, Bots Telecom, DBES, and Botswana Housing Corporation. Key features of their offerings include:

- Ready stock availability across multiple branches in Botswana
- IP-rated protection for industrial and commercial environments
- Surface mount and tamper-proof designs for safety and compliance
- Expert advice and support for installation and product selection You can visit their stores or contact them directly for quotes and product specifications.
