

Dominic Cable Management Frame Manufacturer

Article Overview

Dominic cable management frames are manufactured by specialized European companies, including TKD Kabel, Niedax Group, and other B2B suppliers in Germany and across Europe.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

1. TKD Kabel TKD Kabel is a major provider of cables, ready-to-connect cable systems, and cable accessories. They offer solutions for industrial applications, including highly flexible control and data cables suitable for robotic and drag chain environments, which complement their cable management systems . 2. Niedax Group The Niedax Group specializes in cable management for ceilings, walls, and floors, offering a full range of cable tray systems, fastening materials, and project management services. They operate globally with sites in over 30 countries and provide technical consulting, planning, and installation services for complex industrial and energy projects . 3. Eurotray and Other European Suppliers Eurotray provides cable management systems for various industries, including modular frames and trays. Other European suppliers listed on B2B marketplaces like Europages offer Dominic cable management frames and related accessories, allowing direct contact with manufacturers for bulk orders or custom solutions . 4. ABB and CommScope ABB offers metal framing and cable tray systems, including modular 1 1/2" channel systems and plated products for industrial and commercial installations. CommScope provides frames, racks, and cabinets engineered for network equipment and fiber cable management, suitable for IT and telecommunications applications
