

How much does a set of metal junction boxes cost

Article Overview

Metal junction boxes typically range from $10 to $450 depending on size, material, and weatherproofing.

Price Range

- Indoor metal boxes: Small indoor metal boxes can cost $10–$60, suitable for basic wiring in garages, workshops, or residential interiors .
- Weatherproof or outdoor metal boxes: These are more robust, designed to resist water, dust, and corrosion, with prices ranging from $70–$450 depending on size and NEMA/IP rating .
- Large enclosures: Boxes designed for multiple conductors or industrial use can exceed $100, especially if they include features like hinged covers, gaskets, or mounting plates .

Factors Affecting Price

- Material: Galvanized steel or other durable metals cost more than plastic but provide better impact resistance and longevity .
- Size: A small 4"x4" box is cheaper, while larger 12"x12" or custom enclosures are more expensive .
- Weatherproofing: Outdoor-rated boxes (NEMA 4X, IP66/IP67) are pricier due to corrosion and water resistance .
- Brand & Features: Well-known brands or boxes with additional features like pre-installed mounting plates or gaskets carry a premium
