

How to install the heat shrink tubing into the slot after the fiber optic cable is connected

Overview

Place Heat Shrink Tubing: Slide the appropriate size heat shrink tubing over the cable ends that need to be sealed. Apply Heat: Use a heat source, such as a heat gun, to evenly apply. A user might want to know the step-by-step process of sealing the cables using the heat shrink method with the COMMScope F84540-000 A8 Fiber Optic Splice Closure. They may be looking for guidance on how to ensure a secure and reliable seal to protect the spliced fibers from environmental elements. In the world of electrical work, few things offer as much protection and organization as heat shrink tubing. When reliability and total cost of ownership are your number one concerns you can trust your grid to Raychem Heat Shrink.
