

International Fiber Optic KVM Solution Quotation

Article Overview

Leading international providers of fiber optic KVM solutions include IHSE, ATEN, Black Box, Eaton, Siemens, Legrand, Austin Hughes, Adder, and Guntermann & Drunck, with top fiber optic cable suppliers like Corning, Prysmian, and Dekam-Fiber supporting high-performance installations.

Key KVM Solution Providers

IHSE is a global leader in KVM extension and switching solutions, offering modular systems that support fiber-optic cabling for long-distance connections. Their products enable secure, real-time access to remote computers, with support for analog and digital video, USB, and SDI signals. IHSE provides online configuration tools and catalogs for customized project quotations. Other major international KVM vendors include:

- ATEN International – Offers fiber-based KVM matrix systems for data centers and broadcasting environments.
- Black Box – Specializes in high-performance KVM and AV solutions with fiber-optic integration.
- Eaton, Siemens, Legrand, Austin Hughes, Adder, Guntermann & Drunck – Provide fiber KVM systems for mission-critical control rooms, supporting multi-user access and high-resolution video over long distances.
