

Plastic Cable Tray Brand Agent

Article Overview

Top plastic cable tray brands include Legrand, Trayco, and Niedax Group, with agents and distributors available globally for procurement and technical support.

Leading Plastic Cable Tray Brands

Legrand offers high-quality PVC cable trays that are easy to install, fire-resistant, and suitable for harsh environments. Their trays feature smooth profiles to prevent cable damage and can be fixed to walls or suspended ceilings, with covers that clip on for safety and convenience. Legrand products are widely distributed through authorized dealers and electrical supply stores. Trayco specializes in lightweight, high-capacity cable trays with integrated ends, designed for easy assembly and increased load capacity. Their plastic trays are particularly suitable for industrial and commercial applications where installation speed and flexibility are important. Niedax Group provides GRP (glass fiber reinforced plastic) cable support systems, which are highly durable, corrosion-resistant, and ideal for industrial, energy, and infrastructure projects. Niedax operates in over 30 countries, offering local agents and technical support for planning, installation, and project management.

How to Find Agents or Distributors

- Official Brand Websites: Most manufacturers list their authorized distributors and contact points. For example, Legrand and Trayco provide regional contacts for sales and technical inquiries.
- Local Electrical Supply Companies: Many plastic cable trays are available through electrical wholesalers and industrial suppliers.
- Global B2B Marketplaces: Platforms like RS Online feature multiple brands, includi...
