

Price comparison of two-core optical cable connectors

Article Overview

Two-core optical fiber connectors typically range from ₹15 to ₹25 per piece in India, with prices varying by supplier, connector type, and quantity.

Pricing Overview

For India-based suppliers, the most affordable fiber optic connectors suitable for 2-core cables are:

- Grow More Enterprises: Starting at ₹15 per piece
- Aares Telecom Private Limited: Starting at ₹20 per piece
- Santosh Electronics: Starting at ₹25 per piece

These prices are for standard single-mode connectors compatible with 2-core FTTH optical fiber cables. Bulk orders may reduce the per-unit cost, and prices can vary depending on the connector type (SC, LC, ST, or FC) and quality.

Connector Types and Compatibility

Fiber optic connectors are designed to terminate the ends of optical fibers and allow quick connection and disconnection without splicing. Common connector types compatible with 2-core cables include:

- SC (Subscriber Connector): Snap-in, widely used for FTTH applications...
