

Price of Vertical Cable Tray Corner Brackets

Article Overview

Vertical cable tray corner brackets are available starting from approximately $0.95 per unit, with prices varying based on material, size, and supplier.

Pricing Overview

- Low-cost options: On platforms like Alibaba, vertical cable tray brackets can start at $0.95 per unit, suitable for industrial or solar cable management applications . These are often customizable in material and size.
- High-quality, durable brackets: Suppliers such as Ekabel24 and RS offer brackets made from hot-dip or sendzimir galvanized steel, stainless steel, or corrosion-resistant materials, designed for heavy-duty use in industrial, commercial, or laboratory settings . Prices for these premium brackets are typically higher and may depend on order quantity and specifications.
- Bulk and commercial orders: For large-scale installations, suppliers often provide volume discounts and options for custom dimensions or coatings to meet standards like EN 61537 .

Factors Affecting Price

- Material: Steel, stainless steel, or plastic brackets differ in cost and load capacity.
- Size and load rating: Larger or heavy-duty brackets designed to support more weight are more expensive.
- Supplier and shipping: Local suppliers may offer faster delivery but at higher prices, while international platforms may provide lower unit costs but longer shipping time...
