

Singapore Fiber Optic Switch Wholesale Manufacturer

Article Overview

Key wholesale suppliers of fiber optic switches in Singapore include Photonik, Masstron, FS.com, and FiberTek, offering both active and passive optical switching solutions.

Photonik Singapore

Photonik specializes in singlemode and multimode fiber optic switches suitable for optical add/drop multiplexers, optical cross-connect systems, network switching for fault protection, and sensor or biomedical instrument integration. Their patented opto-mechanical switches can be mounted directly on PCBs, featuring low insertion loss and seam-seal packaging, making them suitable for high-performance network applications and sensor systems .

Masstron

Founded in Singapore in 1995, Masstron provides total communication solutions, including the manufacturing of jumper cables, fiber optic switches, and on-site termination and testing services. They serve industries such as data communication, industrial automation, telecommunication, and research institutions. Masstron acts as a one-stop supplier for fiber optic products and offers customized solutions for large-scale deployments .
