

Supply of ladder cable trays in the UK

Article Overview

Ladder cable trays in the UK can be sourced from leading suppliers like Eaton, Legrand, Metsec, RS Components, and Direct Channel, offering a wide range of materials, sizes, and accessories for industrial and commercial applications.

Key Suppliers and Options

Eaton offers a broad range of B-Line series cable management solutions, including metallic and non-metallic/fiberglass ladder trays. Their products support commercial and industrial applications, and CAD/BIM design content is available for download to assist in planning and specification . Legrand UK manufactures the Swifts cable tray and ladder ranges locally, providing high-quality, fire-tested systems. They offer expert support for bespoke requirements and integration with Building Information Modelling (BIM) for efficient project planning . Metsec provides UK-manufactured ladder cable trays in various widths (50mm–900mm) and depths (12mm–50mm), with finishes including pre-galvanised, hot-dip galvanised, and stainless steel 316L. They offer full design services, CAD drawings, and bespoke manufacturing for custom projects . RS Components stocks ladder cable trays from brands like RS PRO, Cablofil, and Legrand. Options include stainless steel (304/316), electrogalvanised, hot-dip galvanised, and PVC trays. They provide datasheets, technical support, fast delivery, and eco-friendly product options . Direct Channel supplies light, medium, and heavy-duty ladder racks with pre-galvanized or hot-dipped finishes. They also offer accessories such as brackets, clamps, and cable guards, ensuring complete containment solutions .
