

Waterproof Fiber Optic Cable Factory

Article Overview

Several reputable factories in China and internationally manufacture waterproof power fiber optic cables, including Jinshui Cable Group, ZTT International, MEFIBEROPTIC, and UnirCable.

Key Manufacturers

Jinshui Cable Group (formerly Zhengzhou 2nd Cable Plant) is a leading Chinese manufacturer of waterproof outdoor fiber optic power composite cables. Founded in 1983, it offers R&D, production, and export services, providing factory-direct pricing, free samples for quality checks, and delivery typically within 25 days depending on order quantity. They supply cables suitable for outdoor, aerial, and industrial applications with robust waterproofing and heat-resistant features . ZTT International Limited specializes in the full industrial chain of optical fiber and fiber optic cables, including waterproof and high-performance variants. ZTT focuses on smart grid, renewable energy, and marine applications, offering integrated solutions with advanced materials and accessories for harsh environments . MEFIBEROPTIC provides a wide range of fiber optic products, including indoor/outdoor armored cables, FTTH drop cables, and specialty waterproof cables. They supply factory-direct to B2B clients, ensuring quality-tested products, technical support, and customizable solutions for telecom, data centers, and network integrators . UnirCable focuses on subsea and underwater applications, producing waterproof fiber optic and hybrid cables, connectors, and subsea electric cables. Their products are designed for marine, ROV, pipeline inspection, and offshore engineering environments .
