

Western European pigtail channel manufacturer

Article Overview

BIRCO and PEC Europe are leading Western European manufacturers of channel systems, offering a wide range of steel, concrete, and anchor channels for construction and industrial applications.

BIRCO

BIRCO, founded in Germany in 1927, specializes in concrete, steel, and PE channel systems for surface drainage and aggressive liquid discharge . Their products include slotted channels, mesh gratings, and design gratings suitable for traffic areas, roof terraces, and stormwater infiltration systems. BIRCO markets its products across Germany, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg, with additional distribution through partners in other European countries . They are known for environment-friendly and durable channel solutions.

PEC Europe

PEC Europe, a German manufacturer now part of the HILTI Group, produces hot-rolled framing and anchor channels, including the toothed PEC-MZ-CE 29/20 and high-load PEC-TA-P channels . Their channels are ETA certified and designed for demanding applications such as tunnel, bridge, elevator, and curtain wall construction. PEC emphasizes high load capacity, fatigue resistance, and flexible customization for specific project requirements, with fast order processing and technical support across Europe ...
